Sells the Champion Cream Saver

THE NEW DE LAVAL

BUTTER made from De Laval-separated cream has won first prize at every convention of the National Creamery Buttermakers' Association for the last twenty-five years, as well as in every other important contest, and you must admit that this fact can mean but one thing—

The De Laval user gets not only more cream, but better cream

De Laval-separated cream is better simply because the construction of the De Laval bowl makes close skimming possible at a speed so low that the butter-fat globules are delivered from the cream spout unbroken.

If you make butter yourself, or if you ship to a creamery and want the highest rating for your cream, you cannot use any separator but the De Laval.

Have you seen the NEW De Laval? The new self-centering bowl with its patented milk distributor is the greatest improvement that has been made in cream separator construction in the last thirty years. We'd like to have a chance to show you how it works. The NEW De Laval also contains many other important improvements that we know will interest you.

Order of Publication

Cassius Allen
vs.
Muriel Allen

WHEREAS, Cassius Allen, of Irasburg, in the county of Orleans, in the State of Vermont, has this day filed in the office of the Clerk of the county court, for said county his libel for divorce against Muriel Allen, setting forth in substance that he was, on the 10th day of December, 1912, lawfully married to the said Muriel; and that he and said libellee lived together as husband and wife in the county of Orleans, that the libellant has resided in the county of Orleans for the past year; and has faithfully performed all the marriage obligations incumbent upon him; that on or about the 23rd day of May, 1916, the said libellee wilfully and without just cause deserted said petitioner, and has ever since refused to co-habit with said petitioner. And praying that the bonds of matrimony between him and the said libellee be dissolved, and that he be granted a bill of divorce, and that he be upon satisfactory proof by way of affidavit that the said libellee is without this State, and that no summons can be served on her, and that the libellant has made diligent search and does not know where the libellee resides.

IT IS ORDERED, that the libellant notify the libellee of the pendency of said petition and summon her to appear at the term of the county court, to be held at Newport, within and for the county of Orleans, on the second Tuesday in September, 1917, on the first day thereof, and answer to the same, by causing the substance of said petition and this order to be published three weeks successively in the Orleans County Monitor, a newspaper printed at Barton, in said county, the last publication to be at least six weeks previous to the commencement of said term.

Dated at Newport, in said county, this 21st day of June, 1917.

H. B. OUSHMAN, Clerk.

Mrs. C. E. Silsby of St. Johnsbury died Thursday evening. The funeral took place Sunday afternoon at her late home and the burial was at Hill-side cemetery in West Burke, her former home.

An enthusiastic patriotic service in the interest of the Red Cross was held in the old church at Burke Sunday afternoon. Dr. Richards of St. Johnsbury and M. M. Taplin of Orleans were the speakers, and music was furnished by members of the East Burke, West Burke, and Newark choirs.

MRS LOUISE STODDARD.

This community was saddened by the death of Mrs. Louise Stoddard which occurred at the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Cate of St. Johnsbury, on Monday, June 25, after a short illness. Louise Braynard was born at West Charleston in 1849, and was the daughter of Joseph and Sophronia Braynard, and was one of a family of ten children, none of whom are now living. In 1866 she was married to Albert H. Stoddard, and their first home was in Charleston, where they remained until 1878, when they moved to Lyndonville. One year later they moved to Lowell, Mass., for a time, then to Boise, Idaho, for a year, after which they returned to Massachusetts, where they made their home in Malden until 1899 when they came back to their native state. Since that time they have lived on the farm in Sutton, now owned by M. P. Whipple until Mr. Stoddard's death, which occurred a few years ago. Mrs. Stoddard then moved to West Burke where she has been pleasantly situated in the home of her adopted son, Curtis, who has tried in every way to make these last years of her life happy and peaceful.

She was a member of the Baptist church and of the W. R. C. where she will be greatly missed. She possessed many fine qualities and had won for herself a large circle of friends here and elsewhere.

The funeral took place Wednesday of last week at the Methodist church here. Rev. G. W. Douglass officiated, and appropriate selections were sung by Mrs. Mary Berry, and Mrs. Nettie McCoy. The floral tributes were very beautiful and spoke in their sweet language of the life of the one who has gone to the life beyond. Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Stoddard and other relatives have the sincere sympathy of their many friends in this time of sorrow and loneliness.

Those from out of town who attended the funeral were Irving Braynard and Mrs. Charles Bean of Bratton, Mrs. Mary Cate of St. Johnsbury, Mrs. Rufus Spear and family of Newport, Mrs. Hamilton of St. Johnsbury, Mr. and Mrs. Will Stoddard of Lyndonville and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stoddard of East Burke.

METHODIST CHURCH NOTES.

Sunday morning the pastor preached on the subject of food conservation from John 8:12, "Gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost."

At the Sunday school session, B. H. Fairbanks gave an account of the recent 100th anniversary of the first Sunday school convention in New England. Mr. Fairbanks has a cane made from the wood of the barn where this first convention was held in Greensboro. The cane together with other antiques has been given by Mr. Fairbanks to E. K. Warren of Three Oaks, Mich., president of the association, and a Vermont by birth.

Owing to the patriotic service at Burke in the afternoon no evening service was held at the church at West Burke.

There is a plan to make the mid-week service Thursday evening of unusual interest and profit this week.

A few words should be said regarding the flag-raising which the Boy Scouts, members of the W. R. C. and G. A. R. and other citizens made possible. The school directors procured a new flag pole and a flag was purchased by subscription. At the raising on the eve of Flag day, prayer was offered by Rev. G. W. Douglass, musical selections were furnished by the school; there was a reading by Willie Ames, a recitation by Stanley Goding and speeches were made by the following: Robert Perry Porter, a veteran of the Civil war; Supt. Jamieson of the North Caledonia Union, and by the local pastor. The flag was raised by two Scouts.

Beside their weekly activities the Scouts cleared the shores of the mill pond near the band stand of unsightly rubbish. It is hoped that all will cooperate with the Scouts and keep this place clean.

Serving His Country.

A certain public office has been the object of much satire because of the passive nature, as a rule, of the incumbent's duties. In this connection the following extract from Moses Colt Tyler's journal, written in Washington years ago, is interesting:

"President Grant never starts a conversation, but when it is started he often says a neat thing. Last year there was an excursion down the Potomac. He was on board, with his cabinet and a quorum of both houses.

"Mr. President," said Mrs. Judd, who sat near him, "it would be a pretty bad thing to have a great accident happen to this party. Nearly the whole government would be destroyed."

"Yes, Mrs. Judd," assented the president, "but you observe that the vice president has very prudently stayed at home."

Dr. Wirt to Make Chautauqua Patriotic Address

A NOTE of patriotism will run through the entire five day Chautauqua program, and the first day of the session has been set aside as "Patriotic Day." The principal address, which will be the keynote of the whole program, will be made by Dr. Lincoln Wirt, publicist and war correspondent, on "The Challenge of the World to America." Dr. Wirt has visited five of the countries at war within the past few months and saw much of the heaviest fighting. He has talked to the leading statesmen of all the countries at war except three and many of the high officials in the various armies. The Chautauqua managers state that one-half the single admissions for the afternoon and evening sessions of the opening day will be given to the local Red Cross society or to any other patriotic organization which may be designated by the local Chautauqua committee. Dr. Wirt will speak at night.

WHO WILL APPEAR AT THE CHAUTAUQUA

The cut above shows two of the members of the Hawaiian Singers and Players, a company of native Hawaiians who will appear here on the third day of the Chautauqua. They will wear native costumes and give native songs and dances.

A Domestic Interlude. Marriageable Daughter—I think, father, you do Arthur a great injustice when you say that he is penurious. Precocious Brother—What's penurious, father? Father—Why, penurious means close. Precocious Brother—Then you're right. That young man is awful penurious when he comes to see Sis.—Exchange.
